mended certain policy issues for consideration by Government and if so, whether Government propose to review the policy in respect of poultry sector;

(b) whether the small producers are likely to be benefited in terms of technological advancement and adequate financial assistance to boost poultry production; and

(c) whether Government have identified centres for poultry farming in the country and whether Government are aware that Ajmer in Rajasthan is one such centre which needs development and if so, what steps Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHYAM LAL YADAV): (a) This Ministry has been receiving representations from National Egg Coordination Committee regarding various issues like exemption of Income Tex on poultry, restoration of cash compensatory support (CCS) on export of poultry produce, exemption/reduction on customs duty on import of amino acid etc. These issues have been taken up with the concerned Ministries. However, this Ministry is at present not reviewing any policy on poultry farming.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) Under Special Livestock Breeding Programme, some districts have been identified for setting up poultry units with small and marginal farmers and agricultural labourers. Keeping in view the potential of poutry production, Ajmer in Rajasthan has been identified as one of the districts for setting up poultry units under Special Livestock Breeding Programme (SLBP).
